

High School Core Classes Goals and Measurable Objectives

Goal 1: Students will master grade specific vocabulary terms at the end of each grade level.

Measurable Objective:

Each student will score 90%, or better, on an end of year vocabulary test.

Goal 2: Students will become proficient with the scientific method utilizing vertically aligned, grade specific lab reports.

Measurable Objective:

- IFV data will show 95% of teachers utilizing lab reports during science experiments.
- IFV data will show 95% of students being successful utilizing lab reports during science experiments.

Goal 3: Students will master the tested TEKS at the end of each grade level.

Measurable Objective:

- 90% of all students, including ALL subgroups (emphasis on LEP), will meet state passing standard on an end of year TEKS related content test in grade 9.
- 90% of all students, including ALL subgroup (emphasis on LEP), will meet state passing standards on all Objectives on the 2010 TAKS Test in grades 10 and 11.