Permian Basin Youth Health Service Corps

Midland Memorial Hospital in partnership with the Permian Basin Area Health Education Center, would like to extend an invitation to all high school students to join the 2014 Permian Basin Youth Health Service Corps (PBYHSC) program.

The purpose of this program is to provide experience in the medical career field and to acquire knowledge about the aspects of working in the medical field in a supportive, caring, and fun environment. The application deadline is September 26, 2014. All applicants must be at least 15 years of age and currently enrolled in an area high school.

Through participation in the PBYHSC program, students are trained using a curriculum of hands-on modules and presentations. Students are encouraged to volunteer at community non-profit organizations. Students will have the opportunity to experience activities in the health care field that they will thoroughly enjoy! Students can build their resume for the future and develop relationships between health care facilities and community agencies.
